Class Descriptions

ChaCha

Originally known as the Cha-Cha-Cha. Became popular about 1954. ChaCha is an offshoot of the Mambo. In the slow Mambo tempo, there was a distinct sound in the music that people began dancing to, calling the step the "Triple" Mambo. Eventually it evolved into a separate dance, known today as the ChaCha.

Club Salsa

The name "Salsa" correctly describes the flavor of this dance: hot! Danced correctly, there's a lot of shakin', shimmying, and hip action going on. Don't be deterred - you can learn how to achieve all of this action. The basic step of salsa can be accomplished with less than 10 minutes of practice.

East Coast Swing

When your mom and dad talk about swing dancing to the music of Elvis Presley and Chuck Berry back in the 50's, this is the dance they were doing. Also called The Jitterbug, East Coast Swing is the official "sock hop" swing dance for jump blues. East Coast Swing is a circular, rotating swing dance that has many wraps, tunnels, and turns.

Mambo

Mambo is a Latin dance of Cuban origin that corresponds to mambo music. It is rhythmically similar to the slower Bolero, though it has a more complex pattern of steps. The saxophone usually sets the syncopated rhythm, while the other brass carries the melody. Mambo is at the roots of the Salsa dance and is a part of the American Rhythm group of American Style ballroom dances.

Hip Hop

Hip-Hop is an authentic urban dance style derived and inspired from African dance movement which typically has a party feel and attitude. Hip-Hop is comprised through a contrast of precise smooth movement, rigid precise poses (great for performance or practical club dancing), of both high and low impact footwork or dance steps for any social gathering (weddings, parties, night clubs), free range of motion that improves flexibility, confidence on the dance floor, and improved overall general movement providing a great healthy and fun workout.

Hip Hop is inclusive to all body types, dancers of all backgrounds, musical taste, and anybody who appreciates the artistry of dance and most importantly fun. No experience needed, just positive energy.

Hustle Disco

Disco is back and hotter than ever! Hustle is characterized by an extremely smooth look, with the dancers turning, rotating, and moving around the floor with seamless motion and minimal vertical movement or bounce. It is a three-count dance, danced as &-1-2-3, 1-2-and-3, or Quick-Quick-Slow-Slow to four-count music. Overall, the Hustle is a dance that was born as an adaptation to the new music of the disco craze, but has survived as a dance that has and will continue to grow with the times, trends and needs of the dancing public. It is a versatile dance with chameleon qualities that make it a highly effective tool in the beginner dancer's playbook.

Latin Drills

This drop-in class will run through intense exercises of the basics in ChaCha, Rumba, Samba, Paso Doble, and Jive. The sole purpose of this class is to give you repetition and build muscle memory so you look like a fierce competitor on the dance floor. Repetition is key to building muscle memory and developing excellent technique, posture, and style. This is the real deal.

We'll choose one or two dances for each class and run through basic drills or a set of choreographed basic figures over and over again. Although this is NOT intended to be a workout class, we recommend wearing your practice gear and drink lots of water because you will sweat! These classes are ideal for competitors looking to improve their technique through repetition and becoming a better dancer. It's a great complement to your current training adding more value to your private lessons and your practices. These classes are solo exercises so NO partner necessary.

FBO Rhythm Sampler

Finally a beginners only class! In this 6-week series class, you will learn the three most popular Rhythm dances in the United States. These dances are ChaCha, Rumba, and East Coast Swing! You will learn the characterization, basic timing, footwork and partnering of these dances. You will go over each dance twice in the series and meet once per week. At the end of the whole series, you will be well versed and comfortable to dance these steps at any dance function.

FBO Ballroom Sampler

Finally a beginners only class! In this 6-week series class, you will learn the three most popular Ballroom (a.k.a Smooth) dances in the United States. These dances are classic Waltz, Tango, and Foxtrot! You will learn the characterization, basic timing, footwork and partnering of these dances. You will go over each dance twice in the series and meet once per week. At the end of the whole series, you will be well versed and comfortable to dance these steps at any dance function.

Latin Drill Variations

Latin Drills with a twist! Take the basics and add various timings and patterns to give you more challenging steps to the drills. These are solo exercises done in a repeated fashion so you can work on your own technique until it's set in your muscle memory. Each week goes over a different dance rotating between ChaCha, Samba, Rumba, and Jive. This class is a bit more challenging than the Latin Drills so we recommend you take private lessons or a month of Latin Drills.

Latin Technique

his Drop-In class teaches you pure technique, speed, styling, partnering, and character of the dance in all the five dances in the International Latin style. These dances includes ChaCha, Rumba, Samba, Paso Doble and Jive. A different dance will be taught determined by our pro-instructors who themselves have competed and judged all over the world and brings the latest Latin trends and direction to the class. This class strictly applies to levels Beginner to Advanced. It's a perfect complement to the Series classes to enhance you learning experience. Learn in a way that lets you remember the dances with drills and exercises so you can become a better dancer.

Popping

Popping is a theatrical and elusive dance style that is inspired by robotic movement, and is comprised of both dynamic and illusion-based motion which typically is utilized as an illustrative visual effect in order to captivate the on-looker. The mechanics and focus of popping consist of mind, body and muscle control, free range of motion, isolations of the entire body for complete mastery of one's body awareness and muscle memory.

Rumba

Rumba is a dance organically related to the rumba genre of Afro-Cuban music. Throughout the history one may trace several styles of dances called "rumba". Some dancers considered rumba the most erotic and sensual Latin dance, for its relatively slow rhythm and the hip movement. Rumba is actually the second slowest Latin dance: the spectrum runs bolero, rumba, cha-cha-cha, mambo in order of the speed of the beat.

Samba

Samba, an old Brazilian style of dance with many variations, is African in origin. It has been performed as a street dance at carnival, the pre-Lenten celebration, for almost 100 years. Many versions of the Samba (from Baion to Marcha) are danced at the local carnival in Rio. The ballroom Samba or Carioca Samba is derived from the rural "Rocking Samba" and has been known for many years.

Tango

Tango is earthy and dramatic. Although walking movements dominate, Tango walks, having a "stalking" or "sneaking" character, are unlike the walks of other ballroom dances. Movements are sometimes slow and slithery, and other times sharp and staccato, such as a quick foot flick or a sharp head snap to promenade position. Tango has the same counter clockwise flow of movement around the dance floor, but with a lesser sense of urgency in comparison to the smoother and more continuous ballroom dances. American Style Tango, especially at highly-developed skill levels, makes great use of open and alternate dance positions to further showcase Tango's dramatic nature.

Wedding Workshop

Our popular 90-minute wedding workshops are specifically tailored to wedding couples wanting to learn the most common wedding dances such as the classy Foxtrot, Waltz and Rumba. As a wedding couple, you will learn steps, timing, presentation, and grace on the dance floor. Submerge yourself with other wedding couples, share the same dance experience and build your confidence on the dance floor.

West Coast Swing (WCS)

Learn the basic six and eight count patterns that will get you moving on the dance floor to this distinctive yet versatile style of swing that is taking over the Boston dance scene! Danced to music ranging from hip-hop and pop to jazz and blues, there is something for everyone. Whether you have no rhythm and two left feet, or have experience in other dance styles, all are welcome. Come with or without a partner and join the fun!

Wine Guest Party!

Bring new guest to the studio and show them a great time at our bi-weekly Wine Guest Party. We'll serve cheese and crackers and of course samplings of wine! Pre-registration required.
